FOR PRESIDENT - - - WILLIAM H. TAFT
FOR VICE-PRESIDENT - - JAMES S. SHERMAN

EDITORIAL COMMENT.

JUST AS IT WAS IN 1896 AND 1900.

"It is no different Bryan who is running for president this year. As the days pass it becomes increasingly clear that the intelligence of the country will have to contend in 1908 against essentially the same desperate appeals to cupidity and ignorance and thriftlessness as were made in 1906 and again in 1900.

"A Bryan campaign without quackery would be welcome, but it would be inconceivable. The quack feature of the Nebraskan's canvass this year is going to be his anti-panic specific of a government guarantee of bank deposits. Two years ago it looked as though it would be government ownership, but it was sure to be government something or other. All the ideas which Bryan has championed resolve themselves into one idea which is the core of socialism, that only by government shall mankind be saved from itself. Guaranteeing bank deposits is only the open form which it takes for the present occasion. The real danger lurks in the background of insincerity.

"One of the amazing facts about Bryan's candidacy is that it is based on grounds which Bryan himself disputes. The Denver platform has a railroad plank which promises new excesses of regulation. Bryan does not believe in railroad regulation; he believes in government ownership of railroads. He has said, many times that railroad regulation is bound to fail and that nothing but government ownership can solve the so-called railroad problem. The Denver platform also abounds in planks promising vigorous regulation of industrial corporations, but it follows like night after day that Mr. Bryan no more believes in regulating such concerns than he believes in railroad regulation. His whole course, his whole creed so far as it has been expounded, is evident of a belief, albeit not yet confessed to himself perhaps, in the ultimate success of government ownership of industrial corporations as well as of railroads. The people, Mr. Bryan has said, believe in regulation. Therefore, I am willing to help all I can in helping them to experiment with regulation.

"It is very kind of Mr. Bryan to be so willing to pander to the people, but when they understand him as thoroughly as they should now, what can the people think of him? Certainly if they believe in a policy of regulation they must think, they can not think anything else, that the last man to whom to intrust the carrying out of that policy is a man who disbelieves in it thoroughly, except as it maybe a half-way house to the government ownership in which he believes implicitly but in which the people do not believe at all."—New York Sun.

A LIBEL ON THE ARMY.

The killing of William E. Annis by Captain Peter C. Hains was cold blooded and premeditated murder, done in a peculiarly cowardly fashion. The murderer took no chances and 'sed his brother for a body guard to prevent interference. He knew that Annis was unarmed.

Hains' plea in the present case is indicated as insanity. This excuse is, of course, the merest pretense. It is the familiar peg on which lawyers hang an appeal to what is called the "unwritten law." In some communities this law is given weight, but nowhere, we believe, when the injured party has slept on his wrongs and suffered the unwritten law to grow cold. That was the case of Captain Hains.

We are told now that there is much sympathy for Hains among his comrades of the United States army and that a great fund, stated at $1,000,000, will be raised by them for his defense. We do not believe that anything of the sort is true. Obedience to law and discipline is the first military virtue. Now to pretend that any considerable number of army officers are preparing to give material and moral aid and comfort to a vile criminal is a gross libel on the service. We see all too much of the spirit of lawlessness in this country, but we refuse to believe that it has found lodgment in the army. There was no excuse for Hains; there should be no sympathy with him.—San Francisco Call.

JUDGE BRISSELL WANTS RE-ELECTION

WILL BE CANDIDATE FOR THE OFFICE OF JUSTICE OF THE PEACE.

The eminent jurist, Judge J. P. Brissell, the conservator of good morals and the holy terror to evil doers, claims the suffrages of the people of Tonopah irrespective of past belief, political creed or religious affiliations. Judge Brissell now occupies the position of justice of the peace and is an ideal officer. He has fulfilled well the duties of the office to which he was elected two years ago and a continuation of him in that position means that Tonopah in the future as it has in the past will not be a haven for crooks or undesirable people. His decisions while on the bench have entitled him to the distinction of being a man who deals out justice fairly and impartially. By nature endowed with a tender heart he in his judicial capacity is never swerved from the right path as it is pointed out to him. The election of the judge is a foregone conclusion.

HARD NUT FOR WEEKS TO CRACK

YOUNG ERLBORN IS RECOGNIZED AS A FIGHTER OF CLASS.

That young Erlborn has made an impression on the fight loving public goes without saying. You can hear the fans from all sides saying, "Weeks will have to go some, now." "This fellow Erlborn shows class" and "Erlborn is the classiest boxer that has showed here yet." So it is very plain that everyone is taking a great interest in the coming bout Labor day.

Erlborn done his first work Friday shortly after getting off the train and boxed, two rounds with Ralph Calloway, a 165-pound man who tried to knock Erlborn's head off in the first round just to show the public that he was a fighter, nevertheless, Erlborn never complained, but the large crowd to a man were remarking of the calibre of a fighter Calloway must be to do such a trick with a boy forty-five pounds lighter than himself, and his failure was because Erlborn ducked out of harm's way.

Freddie Weeks is putting in his best ticks these days as he fully realizes that he has a job on his hands that will not be a repetition of the recent go with Dougherty. Erlborn has fought Freddie on two occasions to a standstill and Fred is leaving no stone unturned.

Both boys will box this afternoon at the Big Casino, commencing at 3 o'clock sharp. Erlborn says that on September 7 he will be twenty-one and that he will either start anew or find some other business.

SHOULD BE GOOD BALL GAME TODAY

MONTANAS AND MILLERS PLAY ON LOCAL DIAMOND THIS AFTERNOON.

The Montanas and the Millers ball teams will meet this afternoon on the local diamond in what should be one of the best ball games ever witnessed. Both teams are at the head of the percentage column and consequently are hot after each other's scalp. The Montana team has been strengthened by the securing of several new players and the infield should go through the entire game without an error. Millers has one of the strongest teams in the state and it is a pleasure to watch them play. Their new pitcher, Coykendall, is a wizard, and plays his position to perfection. The game will start at 3 o'clock sharp.

WILL NOT SLEEP TOGETHER.
The Washoe delegation to the state Democratic convention will make the trip to Tonopah in a special car. It is likely the Ormsby delegation will go in the same car, but it is safe to presume that the two delegations will not sleep together.—Carson News.
